Dear Michael,

Just a quick note to congratulate you on your first edition of the Klinger News. It is a great idea and I only wish I had thought of it!

By the way I wonder if you will be kind enough to pass my enclosed answer to the "Spot the Deliberate Mistake" competition on to your editor.

Look forward to seeing you soon.

Kindest Regards,

Greg Smith

Dear Sir,

Please consider this as my entry to the exciting "Spot the Deliberate Mistake" competition contained in your first edition of "The Klinger News".

After studying your paper in intently page by page I suddenly noticed your clever ploy. Fortunately, I have the advantage over your many readers, as I am aware that Mr. Klinger is a Director os Swiftdown Limited and the Executive Producer of the new comedy "Confessions of a Window Cleaner" which is being completed at EMI Elstree Studios, directed by Val Guest and starring a host of British talent including: Anthony Booth, Dandy Nichols, Bill Maynard, Richard Wattis, Sheila White, Linda Hayden, Sam Kydd and Robin Askwith as Timothy Lea and many others. Therefore I deduce that, although you made reference to all Mr. Klinger's other productions such as "Gold"; "Shout at the Devil"; "The Chilean Club"; "Rachael's Man"; and "Green Beach" etc. your omission to any reference to his involvement and enthusiasm in and for "Confessions of a Window Cleaner" was obviously the deliberate mistake contained in this issue. Otherwise I assume there could be no other reason for not including a mention of that production.

I look forward to hearing from you and also reading further news of the Confessions film in your forthcoming edition!

Yours sincerely,

Greg Smith
